This newly-formed sole-owned company is very young, but the owner comes with a vast array of digital skills which will ensure that ALL the printing needs of the customer are satisfied, and they do not have to seek other service providers in this field.

King Artistry (pty) Ltd has adopted this name which he acquired while honing his computer skills playing computer games and exploring illustrative, design and animation software. Exposure to these digital media also sharpened his senses to caricatures, animations, photography, illustrations, artistic designs and the harmony of colours. The connotation associated with “King” are reflected in the matching quality of work that is delivered.

Our expertise are enhanced by the Visual Art and Computer Literacy courses at High School. The completion of tertiary studies at Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University allowed King Artistry (pty) Ltd to be of service as Graphic Designer for the Head Office of Spar Eastern Cape, HOME ETC and The Boardwalk Sun International.
